Passionate by TV and cinema since childhood, I worked as an editor for six years and as director and producer for 12 years.

I have directed a feature film, commercials, TV shows, documentaries, and corporate films. The diversity of my experiences has given me a great ability to adapt, a constant artistic and technical rigor, as well as knowledge of the rules and codes of all the genres of films I have worked on.

As a green card holder, I'm now settled in Los Angeles and determined to continue my filmmaking career that began in France.
